

Celebrating a Successful Ski Season with Carlsberg

Top professional skiers and snowboarders joined recreational skiers, fans and the media to celebrate the end of the 2009 season at the 10th Verbier High Five by Carlsberg competition

The event, which took place in the famous Swiss resort in April, combines competitive and light-hearted racing with great partying. It is open to anyone over 18, offering amateurs the chance to compete against professionals in five alpine skiing and snowboarding races.

Champions of 2009

Stars of this year's High Five was Didier Défago, the 2009 double winner of the men's downhill races at Wengen and Kitzbuehel, women's World Cup Winner Lindsey Vonn, and Maria Riesch, winner of the slalom World Championships and World Cup.

They joined many other great skiers and snow boarders competing in the event, including Didier Cuche, Mattias Hargin, William Besse, Sandro Viletta, André Myhrer, Julia Mancuso, Fränzi Aufdenblatten, Chemmy Alcott, Sylviane Berthod, Tina Maze, Marie Marchand-Arvier, Alex Coudray, Jonas Emery, Mike Aeschbach and Xavier Jordan.

